

WOMEN'S DAY

7TH MARCH 2020

8th March is celebrated as the "International Women's Day" across the globe. It is an important occasion for all of us to pause for a moment to reflect on ourselves, to appreciate how much has been done and what more needs to be done in the field of gender equality. Moreover, it is the day to acknowledge all the men and women in the world for making this world a better place for everyone to live in.

On 7th Mar 2020, we celebrated the International Women's Day in Shambhunath Group of Institutions. During the programme, the students presented a few songs and dances which enthralled the audience. The program would not have been a great success without the help of the College administration and the Volunteers. Therefore, we would like to sincerely extend our heartfelt gratitude to all of them for making the event an extraordinary one.

Theme of the day:-Each for equal

Program was Organized by Dr.Rajni Tiwari, Ms.Shalini Bharadwaj, Ms. Shilpi Banerjee, Ms. Sukriti Verma, Ms. Diksha Srivastava

On 7th March, the event started at 10:30 A.M. in Seminar Hall with a welcome speech by Ms Shilpi Banerjee. The guest of honor for the day was

1. Ms. Abhilasha Gupta Nandi
(Mayor Prayagraj)
2. Wg CDR Mamta C Tripathi
(Airforce Station Bamrauli)
3. Ms. Payal Singh PCS
(Finance and Accounts Officer, DIOS)
4. Prof. Ambalika Sinha
(Department of Humanities, MNNIT)

During the event WgCdr Mamta C Tripathi (Air Force Station Bamrauli) emphasized on the importance of striking a balance between career and family and how without a family support a women can't achieve success. She also stressed on the fact that the girls should know their right to defend themselves and be careful against crimes against women. On the same occasion, the guest of honour, Ms. Abhilasha Gupta Nandi (Mayor Prayagraj) shared her tales of struggle and success. Further she said that gender equality is very important for a healthy society. The milestone to be reached is the basic information for a girl child in every family to "focus on girl education" creating awareness among the society which will further result in overall development of the nation and its community. Prof. Ambalika Sinha said that it was the time to uphold women's achievements, recognize challenges and focus greater attention on women's rights and gender equality to mobilize all people to do their best. Ms. Payal Singh (PCS) reiterated on the importance of recognizing one's own talent and standing strong without looking for external support. She mentioned that girls are very competent and capable in their own way and they should keep working towards their dreams.

A Purple Dress code was followed by all attending Female Faculty and Women's day purple Badges were given to all the students and faculty.

The Girl Sheroes from all the departments were felicitated for their performance and enthusiasm in their departments. A short video on these Sheroes, which was created by Faculty Coordinator Ms.Sukriti Verma and student Coordinators, was also showed during the programme.

Motivational Videos were screened for the students and were also provided with a Browser based on Women's safety.

Lastly Dr. K.K Tewari (Secretary, Utthan) delivered a Wonderful and Motivating speech for all the attendees.
